“My Distinction: The Secret to My Success”; Lecture at Al Ain University

Al Ain, UAE, Oct. 31, 2011 – The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, in cooperation with the General Directorate for Policing Operations (Social Support Centers Department) at the Abu Dhabi Police General Headquarters, organized a lecture entitled “ My Distinction: The Secret to My Success” at AAU Women’s Campus in Al Ain.

Ms. Hind Al Badwawi, family counselor and self-development international trainer at the Ministry of Social Affairs, delivered the lecture which focused mainly on self-esteem and pre-planning for goals.

The lecturer presented useful awareness tips in addition to motivating questions. Ms. Al Badwawi also addressed the students’ queries and requests providing the support the female students need.

Ms. Al Badwawi expressed her pleasure to be at Al Ain University to give the lecture and commended the efforts of the Deanship of Student Affairs.

Further, Dr. Ibtehal Abu Rezq, the Dean of Student Affairs at AAU, thanked Ms. Al Badwawi for the valuable information asserting that the University is keen on staying in direct communication with the relevant bodies to cater for the needs and interests of the youth.
