AAU Students visit MOHE

Within the “Work Ethics” course, the students of the College of Business at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, Abu Dhabi Campus, visited the Ministry of Human Resources and Emiratisation, under the supervision of Dr. Fayeze Shdefat.

The visit aims to connect the theoretical aspect with the practical reality by looking at what the MOHE provides in the field of laws and regulations to preserve the rights of employees in institutions and the problems they face. The visit also discussed aspects of cooperation between the ministry and the university in the fields of Joint research.
