“Talents Day” at AAU .. Forum of creativity and enthusiasm

For the first time, the College of Business at Al Ain University of Science and Technology organized the “Talents Day” at Abu Dhabi Campus, in the presence of Dr. Amer Qasem, AAU Vice President, Dr. Hani Al Jarrah, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, Deputy Deans, academic staff, students, and visitors from outside the university.

Through the theatrical performances, students show their talents in singing, acting, and poems, also there was an exhibition for the students who are talented in drawing, sports, collecting coins, engraving on glass and recycling.

Dr. Amer Qasem thanked the participating students and recommended them to pay attention to their talents and develop them, stressing that the university is keen to refine the students' personalities and develop their talents.

The event, which was held under the supervision of Dr. Nuha Hamada and Dr. Adnan Ghasham from the College of Business, aims to motivate students to discover their talents, unleash their creative potential and develop their abilities, thus enhancing students' self-confidence to present their talents to everyone and to support team spirit.

There was an atmosphere of enthusiasm and entertainment within the event where students were able to attract the attention of the audience.
